Mayfair and St James's is one of the oldest and most important arts quarters in the world. It is home to the Royal Academy of Arts as well as the major auction houses and leading art galleries.

We hope you enjoy exploring the area with this complimentary map brought to you by the Royal Academy of Arts and GalleriesNow.net.

The Royal Academy of Arts

Established by King George III in 1768 to promote art and artists, the Royal Academy of Arts stages a diverse public programme of major exhibitions and events, and is home to the UK's longest established art school. To this day it remains an independent charity that is run by many of the country's greatest artists and architects – the Royal Academicians.

In 2018, the Academy will celebrate its 250th anniversary and unveil an expanded campus and programme. For more information visit royalacademy.org.uk/ra250

Art Sales at the RA

Limited editions and unique works by leading contemporary artists, including Royal Academicians, are on sale all year round at the RA – both online and onsite. royalacademy.org.uk/artsales

GalleriesNow.net brings you all the exhibitions at the world's leading public and commercial galleries, 365 days a year. Plan gallery visits with live listings, find exhibitions close to you and make virtual tours. Online, on your mobile and with our free weekly openings and closings email.
