

UNIFORM

Sixth Form Dress Code

In recognition of the maturity and individuality of the students we do not require Sixth Form to wear school uniform. However, they are expected to set an example to the rest of the school and should be smart and tidy, wearing clothes that are appropriate to a working environment.

When a student is taking part in a practical subject or sports it may be necessary to wear overalls over their normal clothes, or to change into something more suitable in order to comply with health and safety. Normal clothing should be worn on leaving that lesson or activity unless it is an all-day event.

Midweek school Mass and when representing Leweston at public events:

- Smart black or navy suits – skirts must not be shorter than just above the knee or longer than mid-calf and must be suit skirts rather than bodycon in style.
- Year 12 - smart white shirt/top
- Year 13 - smart shirt/top of any colour
- Black/navy shoes
- Tights (girls only)

Unacceptable every day wear includes:

- Scruffy clothing
- Denim jeans of any colour
- Leggings or jeggings
- Shorts
- Skirts that are shorter than mid-thigh in length
- Revealing clothing of any sort – tops should not be strappy, reveal the midriff or be décolleté
- Hoodies or tops with slogans
- Sportswear including trainers, canvas or deck shoes
- Excessively high heels
- Flip-flops
- Facial piercings, excessive make up or extreme hair styles (cut or colour)

Sixth Form Sportswear

This may be purchased from the Leweston School Shop:

- Navy polo shirt with 'Leweston Sixth Form' logo.
- Navy tracksuit bottom.
- Pale blue hoodie with 'Leweston Sixth Form' logo.
- Any colour trainers (but not fashion trainers). Pupils representing the school at netball or tennis will need predominantly white trainers.

Where a student is concerned about the appropriateness of their clothing choices, they should consult their tutor or Head of Sixth Form for guidance.
