Comment text:

Kersey Parish Council have considered the new proposal for Kersey to be in a new ward to be called South East Cosford. This ward would be comprised of the parishes of Aldham, Elmsett, Chelsworth, Lindsey, Nedging-with-Naughton, Kersey, Semer, Wattisham and Whatfield. Kersey Parish Council are happy for Kersey to be in the proposed South East Cosford Ward. There was surprise that Wattisham was to be included in this ward since it is much more closely connected with Bildeston and Hitcham.
