Subject: Your FOI Request: FOI 16/02

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 3 March 2016 requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You have requested:

Under the FOIA please confirm how many towns , boroughs etc have a Royal Charter still inforce and the dates of incorporation.

The Commission has no involvement with the awarding or otherwise of Royal Charters and does not hold information relevant to your request. I understand that this is dealt with by the Cabinet Office.

If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact me, quoting the reference number above in any correspondence. If you wish to request a review of our decision, you should write to Lynn Ingram, Finance Director, at the address below.

If you are not content with the outcome of your complaint or review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. Details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website: <https://ico.org.uk>

Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England.

Yours sincerely,

Karen Cleverly
