Annotation 3: The combined parishes of Little Downham and Coveney

Comment text:

Little Downham Parish is currently part of the Downham Villages Ward, which includes the parishes of Little Downham, Coveney, Witcham and Mepal. It had a total electorate of 3578 in 2014 and is predicted to have an electorate of 3600 in 2020. In view of the need to make boundary changes and reduce the number of Ward Members, Little Downham Parish Council recommends that the Parishes of Little Downham and Coveney form a One Member Ward called Downham Villages (Little Downham, Pymoor, Coveney and Wardy Hill). The combined electorate predicted for this Ward in 2020 will be 2440. Little Downham and Coveney Parishes are very similar neighbouring rural and agricultural communities with close connections through families and relatives, the Downham, Pymoor & Coveney Parish Magazine, combined Church Services and public transport bus routes.
