Subject: Freedom of Information request - My neighbour at the backyard garden encloched on my land.

Dear Local Government Boundary Commission for England,

I am the owner of [REDACTED]. My neighbour behind, the owner of [REDACTED] pulled down the fence behind my garden, and encloched into my land.

Despite the fact that there was a shed which was built by the previous owner of my house over 40 years ago at the end of the garden, even before my neighbour bought his property, he insisted that the shed is in his land. I stopped him raising the remaining fence, which resulted in him calling the Police. The Police told us to contact you for the boundary settlement. I have gone to the council office, both in Barking centre and in Heathway Dagenham without any help but was asked to make calls. This I did without any success.

I would want you to intervene before it will be too late. I have tried to make every peace possible but that did not work. I am looking forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,
[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your email of 22 July 2016 requesting information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

You have requested:

"I am the owner of [REDACTED]. My neighbour behind, the owner of [REDACTED], pulled down the fence behind my garden, and encloched into my land.

Despite the fact that there was a shed which was built by the previous owner of my house over 40 years ago at the end of the garden, even before my neighbour bought his property, he insisted that the shed is in his land. I stopped him raising the remaining fence, which resulted in him calling the Police. The Police told us to contact you for the boundary settlement. The Commission does not hold any information relevant to this request.

The LGBCE is responsible for reviewing electoral ward boundaries for local authorities and has no information or power over housing boundaries. We would recommend contacting the Land Registry for information on this matter. Their website is <https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/land-registry>

If you have any further queries please do not hesitate to contact me quoting the reference number above in any correspondence. If you wish to request a review of our response, you can write to Lynn Ingram, Finance Director at the address listed below.

If you are not content with the outcome of your FOI request you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The details of this procedure can be found on the ICO website. Generally the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the LGBCE.

Your sincerely,
