

Dear Mark,

For the avoidance of doubt, I can confirm that the Lincolnshire Administration Group on Lincolnshire County Council support the latest draft recommendations for the district areas of North Kesteven, South Kesteven, West Lindsey and South Holland.

This support is based on the fact that the LGBCE responded positively to the Group's last feedback in the four districts concerned.

There are concerns about some of the previously proposed divisional names in the other three districts, which the Group hope have been addressed by the Commission.

Please let me know if you require any further clarification.

Kind regards,
