Subject: Crawley boundary changes

Dear Sir/Madam,

I was talking to a friend the other day and I was exceedingly concerned to find that the voting boundaries for council elections in Crawley, are to be changed. I have seen the new proposed changes and they do not appear to make any sense. One of them appears to go over a railway line in the most bizarre fashion. The only reason I can think for the proposed changes is that certain political parties want them to happen. As it will directly benefit them. I therefore propose that we keep the current voting boundaries and do not change to the proposed boundaries.

Yours Sincerely

Mark Stephens
