Subject: Electoral Review of Forest of Dean - Staunton and Corse Area

I live in Staunton GL19 and our village is connected to Corse Village, in fact not many people can identify the boundary between the two.

Each village is in a different ward and has different councillors - this situation should never have happened as anyone with any sense could see if they visited the villages.

We have long tried to see if we could have one Parish Council as this would make life a lot easier. In fact the Councillors on Staunton Parish Council live in Corse but because we are so closely linked this is to our benefit.

Staunton Village serves the needs of both villages, with a local Post Office and general store, a garden centre with café, a pet shop, a garage and a pub. There is also an industrial estate with units for small businesses. From Staunton Cross you travel down the Gloucester Rd toward Gloucester and there is Corse Garage, where the boundary is few people know, where does Staunton end and Corse begin. I believe each side of the road is different ?

It would make great sense if Staunton, Corse, Redmarley and Hartpury were in the same ward.
