Dear Madam. I think that as a basis of the review District boundries should not cross County boundries which is the situation now, also in the rural areas there should be only one core village in each ward and not two, with the bulk of the planning growth going in our core villages this would be easier for the elected councillor to manage and would prevent the wards getting out of proportion so quickly again. I also we should not get too hung up on the exact numbers of councillors, if 32 or 33 makes for a better fit of Parish boundries and better representation then so be it. I will make other comments as the consultation progresses. All Best Regards Bryn Hurren. Councillor for Boxford Ward.
