Dear Sirs

I am unable to accept the Electoral Commission's proposed changes to ward boundaries in Royston. The Home Office requires considerable numbers of new houses to be built in the town and it would seem more sensible and economic, should boundary changes then be required, to make them when the housing of additional population has been completed.

Yours faithfully

Mary Townsend