Hello,

Your consultation was considered at our council meeting of 17th September 2013.

It was agreed that there was no need for wholesale change and that the overall number of Councillors was about right. Whilst some areas may need "tweaking" to conform with the recommended representation levels it was thought that this could be done quite simply. However in the event that electoral boundaries were to change it was agreed that geographically and socially Watnall would be better incorporated into Nuthall.
