From the member for Folkingham Rural:

Dear Boundary Commission,

On behalf of the Conservative Group, we are in support of the final boundary proposals put forward by the County Council.

As elected member for the current Folkingham Rural division, I do not support the proposed renaming of this division into Upper Glens. Folkingham Rural has only very minor changes from the current boundary so to change the name would seem an unnecessary confusion and distraction in efficient governance.

The Glen River only runs through the southern part of this large division so bears no relevance to the majority of the area.

Regards,
Martin Hill
