Dear Sirs

I would like to support the committee's draft recommendations for West Sussex County Council in so far as the Horsham area is concerned.

Although it is difficult to find a perfect way of splitting up the town of Horsham, this achieves good electoral equality while maintaining community links as far as possible. With regards to the proposed Horsham Hurst division, the Trafalgar area is a tight knit community which should be kept intact and Hurst Road provides a strong link and focal point between that and the other concentration of electors around the Railway Station in the Horsham Park ward. A similar division that I currently represent has worked well for the last six years.

Yours sincerely

Nigel Dennis
