

How to get to St Luke's Church

From Finchley Road Tube:

When you come out of the station, you should see a bus stop straight ahead of you (in front of Waitrose). Take one of the following buses up the Finchley Road:

13 towards Golders Green or 113 towards Edgware

Depending on traffic, the journey will take 5-10 minutes. Get off the bus at the 'Fortune Green Road' stop. You will see the Hampstead School of English on your left.

Cross the Finchley Road at the traffic lights just back from the bus stop, and walk up the road on the opposite side until you turn right at the crossroads into Platts Lane. Shortly after entering Platts Lane you will see Kidderpore Avenue on your right. St Luke's is a little way up Kidderpore Avenue, on your left hand side.

From Finchley Road & Frognal Overground:

As you exit the station there is a bus stop directly in front of you. Take either the 13 to Golders Green or the 113 to Edgware. Get off the bus at the 'Fortune Green Road' stop. You will see the Hampstead School of English on your left.

From West Hampstead Tube Station:

You can walk from the tube station (it takes approximately 25 minutes) or take a 328 bus towards Golders Green.

If you are walking, walk straight up West End Lane and Fortune Green Road, right to the end. You will get to a crossroads with Finchley Road. Cross at the traffic lights and continue straight ahead into Platts Lane.

Shortly after entering Platts Lane you will see Kidderpore Avenue on your right. St Luke's is a little way up Kidderpore Avenue, on your left hand side.

If you take the 328 bus, get off at the 'Finchley Road' stop (at the top of Fortune Green Road). This stop is just past the Hampstead Cemetery gates. The crossroads ahead of you are with Finchley Road. Cross at the traffic lights and continue ahead into Platts Lane.
