

ANITA HARTIG

Soprano

Hailed by the New York Classical Review as having, "a gorgeous instrument with superb dramatic instincts" and possessing a "lovely purity of sound" by the Financial Times, Romanian soprano Anita Hartig is one of the most highly sought-after stars in opera today. During her studies at the Gheorghe Dima Music Academy in Cluj Napoca, she won several national and international vocal competitions, and made her debut as Mimi in La bohème at the Romanian National Opera in 2006.

From 2009-14 Anita was a member of the ensemble at the Wiener Staatsoper, giving her the opportunity to make her international debut as Musetta La bohème. During her time in Vienna, she showcased a number of prestigious roles in house including Pamina Die Zauberflöte, Despina Così fan tutte, Zerlina Don Giovanni, Mimi La bohème, Marzelline Fidelio, Micaëla Carmen and Susanna Le nozze di Figaro.

Anita has performed in some of the most important opera houses in the world, including the Bayerische Staatsoper, Kanagawa Kenmin Hall Tokyo, the Megaron Concert Hall Athens, the Royal Opera House Covent Garden, La Monnaie Brussels, Deutsche Oper Berlin, Hamburgische Staatsoper, Teatro alla Scala Milan, the Opéra national de Paris, Gran Teatre del Liceu Barcelona and the Metropolitan Opera New York, and with renowned conductors including Adam Fischer, Franz Welser-Möst, Bertrand de Billy, Daniele Rustioni, Carlo Rizzi, Dan Ettinger, Daniel Oren, Mark Elder, Marco Armiliato and Ivor Bolton.

In early 2013 Anita made her Royal Opera House debut as Mimi in John Copley's renowned production of La bohème under the baton of Alexander Joel. The following year, Anita made her debut at the Metropolitan Opera and Opera Bastille as Mimi, before going on to make her house and role debut as Violetta La traviata at Gran Teatre del Liceu.

Recent seasons have seen Anita return to Covent Garden as Susanna Le nozze di Figaro, to the Wiener Staatsoper and Dresden Semperoper as Mimi and to the Metropolitan Opera to sing Liu Turandot and Susanna Le nozze di Figaro. Other stand-out performances include Marguerite Faust for Opernhaus Zürich and Wiener Staatsoper and her Deutsche Staatsoper Berlin debut as Mimi.

This season, Anita returns once again to the Metropolitan Opera for Antonia Les Contes d'Hoffmann, Mimi at the Teatro Real Madrid, Marguerite Faust for both the Wiener Staatsoper and Hamburgische Staatsoper and further appearances in Vienna and the Metropolitan Opera as Mimi in La bohème. Anita will round off her season with a concert performance of Faust in Moscow and Mimi at the Teatro dell'Opera di Roma.
