

Parents' Tales Workshop

Date / location:

Families are invited to join this online creative workshop where parents / carers can share their memorable fairy / folk-tale from childhood, and encourage their children to draw a picture inspired by the tales.

It's an opportunity to connect with your own childhood and culture, to be creative with your children, and connect with other families.

To register your interest please email: