Contract

BADGER has a service level agreement with Language Line Solutions. They provide interpreting services for over 200 languages and operate 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Contact Procedure

To arrange for an interpreter see appendix 1, this guides you through each procedure for arranging an interpreter in the following situations; 'when a client is with you', making outgoing client calls' and 'handling incoming client calls'.

Team Leaders/Co-ordinators must note the details of the booking on their Team Leader/Coordinator shift report.

Appendix 1 – Accessing a Telephone Interpreter

Accessing a Telephone Interpreter

When your client is with you

If you have a LanguageLine Dual Handset Phone please skip step 1.

1. Phone 0845 310 9900 and select option 1
2. The operator will ask you for:
 - Your ID Code ()
(Please note: this code is confidential to your organisation or dept.)
 - Your organisation name (and department where appropriate)
 - Your initial and surname
 - The language you require (say if you need a specific interpreter*)
 - Your client's location, i.e. with you
3. Stay on line while the operator connects you to a trained interpreter (about 30 seconds).
4. Note the interpreter's ID code, introduce yourself and brief the interpreter saying what phone you are using, e.g. single/ dual handset, speaker phone or mobile.
5. Ask the interpreter to introduce you and themselves to your client and give the interpreter the first question or statement. Give the interpreter time to interpret between you and your client. Continue the conversation.
6. Let your client and the interpreter know when you have finished.

Making outgoing client calls

The operator will connect you to an interpreter, then conference your client into the call.

1. Have your client's name and telephone number ready.
2. Follow steps 1 and 2 for 'When your client is with you', but advise the operator your client is NOT with you.
3. Give the operator your client's name and telephone number.
4. Stay on line while the operator connects you to a trained interpreter (about 30 seconds).
5. Note the interpreter's ID code. Introduce yourself and brief the interpreter: explain the operator is phoning your client. Ask the interpreter to introduce you and themselves to your client and give the interpreter the first question or statement.
6. The operator introduces your client into the call. The interpreter proceeds as you directed above.
7. Give the interpreter time to interpret between you and your client. Continue the conversation.
8. Let your client and the interpreter know when you have finished.

Handling incoming client calls

If you have conferencing facilities

1. Put your client on hold using your organisation's conference call facilities (try to obtain your client's telephone number in case they hang up while on hold).
2. Follow steps 1 and 2 for 'When your client is with you', but advise the operator your client is ON HOLD.
3. Brief the interpreter, then conference your client into the call.

If you do not have conferencing facilities

1. Note your client's telephone number, language and, ideally, name.
2. Assure your client that you will call back shortly with an interpreter.
3. Follow the procedures for 'making outgoing client calls'.
