¹ Costs

Any costs quoted here do not include the following disbursements, which are costs related to your matter but which are payable to third parties:

- any Home Office fees for making the application, e.g. visa fees, immigration health surcharge fees, premium service fees; and
- where the Home Office refuses your application, advice and assistance in relation to any potential appeal.

We will normally handle the payment of the disbursements on your behalf to ensure a smoother process.

² Fixed fee/hourly rate

When an hourly rate is charged, the exact number of hours it will take depends on the circumstances in your case, such as:

- the amount of supporting evidence that we need to consider;
- which language(s) you speak; and
- whether you are applying with other dependants.

Our services

The work involved in any application will normally include:

- discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether this is the most appropriate application for you to make and what other options may be available to you
- giving you advice about the requirements of the particular category in which you wish to apply, and whether you meet the criteria
- if you do not fulfil certain criteria, whether this can be overcome and how, which on average takes 2-3 hours
- considering the supporting evidence you have provided, which could take anywhere between 5 to 15 hours³
- where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence (such as medical records and bank statements), including taking statements from any witnesses
- preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf, which we anticipate will take 3-4 hours, which would normally include any additional assistance agreeing the draft application with you
- attendance at a Home Office interview; if the Home Office ask you to attend an interview, we will give you clear advice at the appropriate time. This could be between 2 and 4 hours of work
- giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.
