25 February 2016

STATEMENT FROM THE JUDICIAL CONDUCT INVESTIGATIONS OFFICE

Deputy District Judge Andrew Campbell

A spokesperson for the Judicial Complaints Investigations Office said:

“Deputy District Judge Andrew Campbell (magistrates’ courts) was subject to a conduct investigation following his bankruptcy, which has since been discharged, and his failure to report his financial circumstances in a timely manner. The Lord Chancellor and the Lord Chief Justice found that DDJ Campbell’s behaviour amounted to serious misconduct and would have removed him from office had he not voluntarily resigned”.
