Dear Ms Smith,

ELECTORAL REVIEW OF HAMMERSMITH & FULHAM: FINAL RECOMMENDATIONS

Today we have published our final recommendations on the future electoral arrangements for Hammersmith & Fulham Council. The report and interactive mapping of the final recommendations are available on the Commission's consultation portal: <https://consultation.lgbce.org.uk/> and our main website: www.lgbce.org.uk.

We have informed the national headquarters of the main political parties, MPs and MEPs with constituency interests in the area, all parish and town councils, the police authority, and all respondents to the consultation.

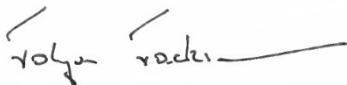

The Commission has now completed its review of Hammersmith & Fulham Council. The changes proposed must now be implemented by order subject to Parliamentary scrutiny. A draft Order – the legal document which brings into force the recommendations – will be laid in Parliament. The draft Order will provide for new electoral arrangements for Hammersmith & Fulham to be implemented at the local elections in 2022.

Finally, Commissioners and staff wish to join me in thanking you and your colleagues for the co-operation and assistance that has been shown throughout the review. We are very grateful and wish you all the very best in the future.

We are continually looking at ways in which we can improve our review processes. Accordingly, overleaf are a number of questions that I would be grateful if you could respond to. Your answers to these questions will help us improve our review process.

In addition, I would also like to invite you to participate in our online opinion survey: <http://www.lgbce.org.uk/about-us/lgbce-opinion-survey> which we send to all stakeholders.

Yours sincerely

Jolyon Jackson CBE
Chief Executive
