

WALTHAM FOREST

December 2020

Currently there are:

- 60 councillors
- 20 wards
- Three councillors per ward

178 residents and organisations helped shape our recommendations

We aim to make sure Waltham Forest councillors represent a similar number of electors

From elections in 2025:

- 60 councillors
- 22 wards
- 16 three-councillor wards and six two-councillor wards.

Currently there are:

- Four wards are more than 10% away from the average number of electors per ward
- No wards are more than 30%
away from the average

2025 will move towards:

- One ward is more than 10% away from the average
number of electors per ward
- Each councillor representing an average of 3,218 electors
