Dear Mr Sampson,

ELECTORAL REVIEW OF HARROGATE

I am writing to inform you that the Commission has, today, opened its consultation inviting proposals for a new pattern of wards for Harrogate.

The Commission is minded to recommend that 40 councillors should be elected to Harrogate Borough Council in future. The Commission now invites proposals from the council, interested parties and members of the public on a pattern of wards to accommodate those councillors.

The consultation begins to today and will end on 4 April 2016.

Publicising the review

I would be grateful if you could bring the consultation to the attention of elected members. Furthermore, a copy of the Commission's press release and posters advertising this stage of the review are being sent to your Council. It would be much appreciated if you could publicise the consultation by arranging for copies to be placed on display at local information points, and by taking such other steps as you consider appropriate to bring the review to the attention of the public and other interested parties. In particular, we would appreciate it if you could promote the consultation online, via social media and any other channels you would normally use to engage residents.

Further details about the review are available on our website at www.lgbce.org.uk where there is information about how to get involved and the kind of evidence the Commission is seeking in support of any proposed warding patterns.

In addition, the Commission's consultation portal allows visitors to interact with online maps of the current wards, draw their own boundaries and feed views into the consultation process directly. The portal is available at <https://consultation.lgbce.org.uk/node/6922>.

Submissions can also be made by email to reviews@lgbce.org.uk and by post to the address at the end of this letter.

Review timetable

This phase of consultation closes on 4 April 2016.

Once the Commission has considered all the proposals received during this phase of consultation, it plans to publish draft recommendations for new electoral arrangements in June 2016. Public consultation on the draft recommendations is scheduled to take place between June 2016 and August 2016. Once the Commission has considered the representations and evidence as part of that consultation, it intends to publish final recommendations in November 2016.

New electoral arrangements for the borough are scheduled to come into effect at the local council elections in 2018.

Creating a pattern of wards

In drawing up a pattern of wards, the Commission must balance its three statutory criteria, namely:

- To deliver electoral equality where each councillor represents roughly the same number of electors as others across the borough.
- That the pattern of wards should, as far as possible, reflect the interests and identities of local communities.
- That the electoral arrangements should provide for effective and convenient local government.

The Commission will test proposals against the criteria before drawing up draft recommendations. Accordingly, all proposals should demonstrate how they meet the three requirements. The Commission will take decisions based on the strength of the evidence presented to it and not merely on assertion. For example, details of community interests such as the location and use made of local facilities, services and local organisations demonstrating how a community manifests itself will carry greater weight than submissions that simply assert that an area has community identity.

The Commission will consider all submissions on their merit. A well-evidenced submission from an individual which addresses the three statutory criteria will be more persuasive than one which does not, even if the latter is from an elected individual or body.

Further information on drawing up a pattern of wards is available in our guidance document: Electoral reviews: technical guidance which can be found at <http://www.lgbce.org.uk/policy-and-publications/guidance>.
