Dear Sir. My husband and I recently objected to your proposal to take Bell End out of the Belbroughton boundary. It is pleasing to note that you received 123 objections and consequently Bell End is to remain as it has always been in relation to Belbroughton. My wish is to thank the Commission.

Having read your letter of 26th February to Kevin Dicks, I would make comment, if I may, that the proposed changes to the Parishes of Fairfield, Bournheath and Dodford are causing a great deal of anxiety. Basically, people want to maintain the status quo.
