Subject: Herefordshire District Council

Sirs

I am responding to the consultation on the overall number of Councillors elected to Herefordshire Council.

I believe there is no rationale for the proposed reduction from 58 to 54. Indeed, if the Council returns to a Committee rather than Cabinet structure and to a more rigorous Scrutiny regime we will need the 58 Councillors we already have. As I have mentioned there is no rationale to this proposed reduction so why change?

Regards
Cllr Gary Swinford
(Bringsty Ward of Herefordshire Council)
