Comment on Draft Recommendations for the Electoral Review of Leicestershire County Council

We support the draft recommendations for the electoral review of Leicestershire County Council, in particular that the proposals made by the County Council for the Ashby de la Zouch and Castle Donington & Kegworth divisions have been included in the draft recommendations.

We are also very pleased that our concerns about the County Council's proposal in the Coalville area have been fully recognised and that it has not been included in the draft recommendations.

While neither of our two proposals for the Coalville area have been accepted, we believe that the draft recommendations do meet our concerns. They avoid having a division crossing the locally sensitive 'green wedge' and they maintain strong links between communities, in particular keeping the whole of Coalville town centre in one division.
