In the interest of democracy where possible there should only be one District Councillor for each ward. In the case of Fairlight this would be possible as about half of the electorate in the Marsham Ward reside in Fairlight. In 2002 an independent candidate stood for election in the Marsham Ward, he swept the board in the Fairlight Area, but because he was not so well known in Pett, Pett Level, Guestling and Three Oaks the residents in those areas voted for the Party. The current situation is that while there are two District Councillors for Marsham Ward they have agreed that one will look after Fairlight, while the other will look after the other areas. Under the present system it would be impossible for an independent person or even another party person to be elected. Paul Capps.

My apologies I sent a submission yesterday and referred to an election in 2002 this should have been May 2003. I should however add, that since that time the Trust have discussed the possibility of putting another candidate forward for election, but have come to the conclusion that it would be a waste of time and effort under the present system for the Marsham Ward.
