Your feedback: Having taken into account the estimated current population of the district of 93,400,I am minded to recommend 30 councillors (a reduction of 9 coun cillors)serving 15 wards(a reduction of 8 wards)across the district.This would mean each ward would have about 6,000 residents served by 2 councillors(3000 per councillor).The redrawing of wards could also enable,in my own specific area,the residents of West Hagley to then be included in Hagley Ward,which is where they truely belong,rather than at present where West Hagley residents fall under Furlongs Ward thereby being grouped together with residents of Clent.
