Dear Sir or Madam,

Re: Birmingham Boundary Review

I am writing to lodge the concerns of several residents in the Edgbaston constituency, with regards to the proposed Boundary Review.

The following constituents have contacted me with concerns about the effect on their house prices, their historical link to Edgbaston (several generations of family), and the fear they will be marginalised if moved into a newly formed ward.

- [REDACTED] – proud to be a Member of Edgbaston HLB, working hard for residents in local area
- [REDACTED] – North Edgbaston Resident's Group – who found that the Boundary Commission has not made any effort to check whether boundary changes would affect house prices.
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED] – concerned split will destroy the nature of Edgbaston
- [REDACTED] – moved last year specifically to Edgbaston and also has concerns about the impact on property value.
- [REDACTED] – lived in Edgbaston all her life – personal and generational link to Edgbaston
- [REDACTED] – concerned about the Nature of Edgbaston, value of property, benefits for home owners and Developers
- [REDACTED] – concerns about Local Taxes, House/Car Insurances, House Prices
- [REDACTED]
- [REDACTED] – concerns about the value of the property and the deterioration of Council services

Representing the people of Bartley Green, Edgbaston, Harborne and Quinton

- [REDACTED] have completed a petition with residents wanting to stay in the Bartley Green Ward, copy attached.

A. [REDACTED]
