

Philip Tew

Member of the public

26/03/2013 16:25

Although Council tax has been frozen garage rents have increased substantially and it's not rocket science to understand that councils will be seeking to raise Council Tax by a significant amount once given the green light. There is no need for CBC to retain the same number of support staff and council members/representatives. If government departments can reduce staff and still provide a quality service then this should also apply to local councils.