Dear Review officer

From a policing perspective if I could provide some input with regard to Rochford Council and ward areas.

We currently have two wards in Hawkwell area of Rochford.

There is Hawkwell West which comes under our Hockley Neighbourhood and Hawkwell North & South which comes under our Rochford Neighbourhood.

This leads to an obvious divide in that Hawkwell is a large Parish with its office is in Hawkwell West - so Hockley deals with 2x Parish Clerks. It would seem more appropriate and practical especially from perspective of policing if Hawkwell had its own Ward all be it that parts of it could be amalgamated into Rochford or Hockley neighbourhoods/wards to make Hawkwell more manageable and cohesive.

It would also seem more practical to have on Parish Clerk for Hawkwell rather than dealing with two for different parts of the same neighbourhood.

Hope that assist.
