

FREDDIE GRINTER | ACCOUNT MANAGER | MERRYCK

OVERVIEW

Freddie builds relationships with senior executives at large corporates as part of the Business Development team at Merryck & Co. Working closely with Faculty, he helps to ensure that clients receive the best possible level of service.

CAREER HISTORY

Freddie brings a wealth of commercial experience, having worked for over 10 years in the HR and L&D sector. Roles have included working for a large managed service provider, professional body and commercial training organisations in which he held leadership roles. He has a wide breadth of industry experience, having worked with clients in government, energy, finance and professional firms across multiple regions including EMEA and APAC.

Freddie holds a BA (Hons) from the University of London, MA from the University of Nottingham and is PRINCE 2 Project Management qualified at Practitioner Level.

PERSONAL

In his spare time Freddie loves to travel and is a keen scuba diver. He enjoys the theatre and is an avid follower of Liverpool FC.