metrobus is different to your normal bus...

You need a valid ticket BEFORE getting on the bus, as the driver will not be able to sell you one.

why buy before?

Buying before you get on the bus means boarding times are up to five times faster.

This, coupled with two sets of doors (one to get on, one to get off), means fewer delays and quicker journeys for everyone!

metrobus is a
buy before
you board
service

for quicker
journeys

it's all about simple, great value travel...

single journey

£2.25

anywhere on a metrobus route

unlimited travel

£4.50 a day

includes travel on all metrobus and First buses
in the Bristol Zone, see firstgroup.com/bristol

want a Week, Month or Year ticket?

buy a First Bristol Zone or West of England Zone ticket which can also be used on metrobus.

buying tickets? that's easy...

on the First Bus app available on the Apple App store and Google Play

from an iPoint at metrobus stops using a credit/debit card or by topping up a smartcard online at buytickets.travelwest.info

where you can order and top up your smartcard

at a Payzone store where you can top up your smartcard, find your nearest at www.payzone.co.uk

at a PayPoint store where you can buy paper tickets, find your nearest at www.paypoint.co.uk

your service U3

what is it?

Service U3 provides an express night link between the City Centre and UWE Frenchay Campus.

where does it leave from?

It leaves The Centre (stop C1) at 0045 then at 05, 25, 45 past the hour until 0405.

And it leaves UWE Campus (stop E) at 0043 then at 03, 23, 43 past the hour until 0403.

when does it operate?

Monday to Saturday nights, university term time only (Monday 6 January to Saturday 4 April 2020). The U3 uses the same City Centre bus stops as the m3.

metrobus m1 provides extra buses between the City Centre and UWE Frenchay Campus, including evening buses until 00.28 from the City Centre and 00.23 from UWE Frenchay Campus.
