Everyone Active - Front of House Apprenticeship

What will the role involve?

The Front of House Apprenticeship is aimed at providing you with the first steps and skills to develop in the Leisure Reception role. This apprenticeship will help you to gain a fully nationally recognized Customer Service qualification along with developing interpersonal and customer interaction skills. We are looking for enthusiastic and energetic individuals who have a unique drive towards delivering a high level of customer service and administration.

Across the 12 month apprenticeship you will gain a:

- Customer Service Level 2 Qualification
- Employment Rights and Responsibilities
- Full sector specific Front of House Training
- Functional Skills in Maths & English

As part of your apprenticeship you will be embedded into a fully operational reception and admin department where you will work closely with experienced Receptionists and Front of House Managers to learn and develop the specific customer service standards. Your apprenticeship will enable you to develop an excellent understanding of what great customer service looks like and be able to demonstrate these transferable skills against nationally recognised standards. You'll also gain the experience of using the reception systems, to ensure the customer has a positive experience of using our centres and develop a thorough understanding of all the products and services we offer.
