

Name: Phil Huxtable	Office: Swansea
Contact Tel: 01792 633280	Email: PDSSwansea@legalaid.gsi.gov.uk
Position: Duty Solicitor
Phil has 22 years' experience in criminal defence work. Having undertaken all forms of criminal litigation. He qualified as an accredited police station representative in 1996 and qualified as a solicitor in 2010. Phil previously worked for two of South Wales' largest criminal practises before joining us in 2014. Throughout his career he has gained extensive knowledge and experience of representing defendants at the police station and Magistrates' court, on a regular basis, and in preparing more serious cases for Crown Court trial. Has represented and continues to represent a wide range of clients from police station investigation through to Crown Court trials. He has extensive experience of dealing with a wide range criminal offences such as murder, serious assaults, sexual offences, drug cases (Supply production and importation) through and down to minor assault, public order and motoring offences. Phil has previous experience in prison law including representing prisoners in respect of prison law issues, including complaints to parole board hearings. He has experience in mentoring junior work colleagues through police station accreditation and criminal practice and procedure.	