PRIVATE RI REPORT

2019

TowerBrook Capital Partners

About this report

This report is an export of the individual Signatory organisation responses to the PRI Reporting Framework during the reporting period specified above. It shows your responses to all completed indicators, even those you chose to keep private. It is designed for your internal review or – if you wish - to share with your stakeholders. The PRI will not publish this report on its website. Instead, you will be able to access the public RI Transparency report of your organisation and that of other signatories on the PRI website.

The information is presented exactly as it was reported. Where an indicator offers a response option that is multiple-choice, all options that were available to the signatory to select are presented in this report. Presenting the information exactly as reported is a result of signatory feedback which suggested the PRI not summarise the information.

Confidentiality and sharing via the Data Portal

Private RI Reports are confidential and only accessible to the reporting signatory via the Reporting Tool and on the Data Portal.

However, the Data Portal does facilitate signatories to share these reports bilaterally with other signatories.

To request access, use the “Find A Report” tab to search the relevant report, and click “Request access”. To check pending requests on your own reports, go to “Settings and Requests” tab. Your nominated Data Portal Contact can approve or decline requests.

It is permitted to publish your Private RI Report outside of the Data Portal. Private RI and RI Transparency Reports are the intellectual property of PRI. In no case, can this report or any content of it be sold to other parties.

Third party organisations who have accessed Private RI reports outside of the Data Portal and intend to use those require the prior written consent of PRI (other than for internal use or research or for the sole benefit of the organisation whose report this refers to).

PRI disclaimer

This document presents information reported directly by signatories. This information has not been audited by the PRI Secretariat or any other party acting on their behalf. While this information is believed to be reliable, no representations or warranties are made as to the accuracy of the information presented, and no responsibility or liability can be accepted for any error or omission.

TowerBrook Capital Partners L.P. ("TowerBrook" or "TCP") is an investment management firm with in excess of $12.4 billion under management and a strong history of creating value for investors. The firm is co-headquartered in London and New York and focuses on making investments in companies headquartered in Europe and North America through private equity and structured opportunities strategies, allowing it to access a range of opportunities throughout the cycle. TowerBrook's private equity strategy primarily pursues control-oriented investments in large and mid-market companies, principally on a proprietary basis and often in situations characterised by complexity. TowerBrook's structured opportunities strategy leverages the firm's expertise to invest in opportunities that fall outside the investment parameters of its private equity strategy. Our overall objective is to deliver superior, risk-adjusted returns to investors on a consistent and responsible basis. This requires a commitment to fundamental value and a highly disciplined approach to the assessment and management of our investments.

We encourage our partners and portfolio companies to share our commitment to the principles of responsible ownership. Together, we are actively involved in helping to promote good practices that sustain not only the businesses in which we invest but the communities in which we operate.

TowerBrook is proud to be the first mainstream private equity fund to become a certified B Corp. B Corp certification is awarded to companies that are leaders in their commitment to ESG and responsible business practices. Certification is administered by the non-profit B Lab movement and follows a rigorous assessment and verification process that ensures B Corps meet the highest standards of social and environmental performance, transparency and legal accountability.

TowerBrook's Private Equity strategy is to pursue control-oriented investments in large and mid-market companies, principally on a proprietary basis and often in situations characterised by complexity. These may include management/shareholder dislocation, a distressed parent company or an out-of-favor industry where we nonetheless identify attractive potential for significant growth. The success of our strategy depends on our ability to choose well, to buy well, to structure our investments appropriately and to harness the right expertise to unlock growth. Our team of seasoned investment professionals is complemented by a network of experienced advisers. We work in close partnership with them and with highly talented senior managers to optimise the performance of our portfolio companies. TowerBrook's Structured Opportunities strategy leverages our experience and expertise to allow us to invest in opportunities that fall outside the investment parameters of our Private Equity strategy. We define structured opportunities as complex transactions incorporating contractual downside protection that take advantage of changing market conditions, or situation-specific events where traditional control oriented Private Equity attributes may not apply. Our Structured Opportunities investment universe includes structured equity and structured assets.

SG 01.4 Describe your organisation’s investment principles and overall investment strategy, interpretation of fiduciary (or equivalent) duties, and how they consider ESG factors and real economy impact.

TowerBrook’s values stand at the core of our mission and are at the foundation of our belief in responsible ownership. The full text of our Purpose Statement, our Mission Statement, and our Responsible Ownership Statement are publicly available on our website (<https://www.towerbrook.com/responsible-ownership/>). Our Responsible Ownership Statement covers planet, people, partnership, performance, transparency, and the management of the responsible ownership program.

We identify and consider responsible ownership risks and opportunities throughout our investment process. We are prepared to invest in imperfect businesses in order to help build them into better businesses. There are some areas we specifically exclude: we will not invest in companies whose business involves tobacco, armaments or sexual exploitation; and we will not invest in companies that we know are involved in violations of internationally recognised human rights or exploitative, discriminatory or harmful practices without a plan for remediation. In addition to our commitment to comply with all applicable laws and regulations, we strive to achieve the highest standards of ethical conduct in our own firm and expect our portfolio companies to do the same.

SG 01.5 Provide a brief description of the key elements, any variations or exceptions to your investment policy that covers your responsible investment approach. [Optional]

TowerBrook takes steps to ensure that our Responsible Ownership Statement and our corresponding practices are understood and shared across the TowerBrook team, our portfolio companies, key service providers and other stakeholders. As such, Responsible Ownership is an explicit component of the TowerBrook Playbook. The Responsible Ownership Statement is also shared with our limited partners and senior management of our portfolio companies and other investments. In addition, our Responsible Ownership Statement and strategy is captured in the Chair Welcome Pack provided to every portfolio chair. TowerBrook keeps the Responsible Ownership Statement, and our monitoring of the ways in which it is implemented, under continuous review. TowerBrook’s Responsible Ownership Statement is reviewed at least once annually by the Responsible Ownership Committee and by the Risk and Compliance Committee. TowerBrook revised our Responsible Ownership Statement in 2018.

This Responsible Ownership Statement applies to all private equity investments made by TowerBrook for which TowerBrook has control or significant influence (“portfolio companies”). In cases where TowerBrook is a minority investor, where other circumstances impact TowerBrook’s ability to assess, set, or monitor ESG-related performance goals, or where we identify material ESG issues that cannot reasonably be addressed, we may not necessarily be able to fully implement the Responsible Ownership Statement, but will make reasonable efforts to encourage consideration of relevant ESG-related principles by the investee company.

No

SG 01.6 CC Indicate the climate-related risks and opportunities that have been identified and factored into the investment strategies and products, within the organisation’s investment time horizon.

TowerBrook seeks to conduct robust reviews of potential climate-related issues early in the investment process. Investment professionals reviewing potential opportunities which present climate-related issues, or which impact industries which could reasonably present climate-related issues, must discuss any such issues with TowerBrook’s Transaction Committee at an early stage in the investment consideration process. Materiality of climate-related issues are evaluated on a case-by-case basis. TowerBrook also seeks to engage with its preferred ESG consultants at an early stage in the investment consideration process to identify climate-related risks and opportunities. Teams also partner with the relevant portfolio companies to resolve any given climate-related issues and escalate to the executive team where needed.

TowerBrook is currently working to identify and track metrics across our portfolio to measure our carbon footprint.

SG 01.7 CC	Indicate whether the organisation has assessed the likelihood and impact of these climate risks?

TCP's Responsible Ownership Report was published in November 2018 and is available on our website. TCP intends to publish a Responsible Ownership Report going forward on an annual basis.

TowerBrook became a certified B Corp in February 2019. All Certified B Corps share their B Impact Report publicly on bcorporation.net. The B Impact Report is the summary of a company's scores on the B Impact Assessment by category and contains no question-level information. TowerBrook's B Impact Report is available on: <https://bcorporation.net/directory/towerbrook-capital-partners-lp>.

SG 03.1	Indicate if your organisation has a policy on managing potential conflicts of interest in the investment process.

Yes

SG 03.2	Describe your policy on managing potential conflicts of interest in the investment process.

It is TowerBrook's policy is to allocate investment opportunities between its private equity funds and structured opportunities funds in a manner that, over time, is fair and equitable. TowerBrook has implemented an Investment Allocation Policy which presents factors and circumstances that TowerBrook considers to be relevant to the allocation determination. Allocation is discussed by the deal teams during the preliminary stage of an investment during the weekly firmwide team meeting, and preliminary allocation is noted on the deal sheet summarizing each potential transaction. Allocation is also considered by the relevant Investment Committee prior to the final approval of an investment. A summary of the factors supporting the ultimate allocation of an investment opportunity are summarized in a written addendum to the final IC memo for each transaction and presented the IC for discussion prior to approval.

No

SG 03.3	Additional information. [Optional]

TowerBrook has an Allocation Committee (the "AC") to address potential conflicts of interest between the private equity investment strategy and the structured opportunities investment strategy. The AC determines the parameters of investment allocations between the two strategies, reviews the allocations and resolves any conflicts of interests that may arise and cannot be solved by the TSO Investment Committee and/or the PE Investment Committee. The AC also assesses the effectiveness of TCP's investment allocation policies and procedures. The AC is co-chaired by TowerBrook's Co-CEOs, Ramez Sousou and Neal Moszkowski, and its other members include TowerBrook Managing Directors Filippo Cardini, Glenn Miller, Matthew Gerber and Abrielle Rosenthal. The AC meets at least once annually, and conducts a look-back analysis on the allocation of all transactions that have closed during the preceding year.

The Limited Partner Advisory Committee of each fund also reviews any matters involving a potential conflict of interest presented by the General Partner.

TowerBrook's also has put into place a written Conflicts Policy, which can be found in the Compliance Manual and Code of Ethics, which is certified by all team members on a quarterly basis. Conflicts of interest that may arise among the various individual and organizations comprising TowerBrook, the TowerBrook Funds and other affiliated entities are monitored on a continuous basis by the CCO and TowerBrook's legal department. A written conflicts register is maintained, which is reviewed annually on a formal basis by TowerBrook's legal department and assessed periodically by TowerBrook's Risk and Compliance Committee. Each team member is required to disclose upon joining, and as applicable thereafter, all outside commitments that involve a substantial time commitment, or which could otherwise present an actual or perceived conflict of interest. The CCO also holds a one-to-one discussion with each team member at least annually to discuss any conflicts of interests relating to such person's outside activities. A summary of such discussions, as well as a risk assessment of the outside activities of each partner and employee, is presented to TowerBrook's Risk and Compliance Committee periodically for review and approval.

Responsible investment processes

- Provide training on ESG incorporation

Key performance indicator

Training for investment teams and portfolio company management

Progress achieved

TowerBrook provided comprehensive ESG training to our investment teams in 2017. During 2018, members of the Portfolio Group and TowerBrook's Legal Team periodically provided refreshers on this training to deal teams on an ad hoc basis to help understand and identify the relevance and importance of ESG factors in investment activities.

TowerBrook VisionOn roundtables bring together sector experts, senior executives and members of our team in a small, private forum where they can exchange ideas and chart new opportunities for sustainable value creation. Through sharing our experience and insights, we aim to make mutually beneficial connections, stimulate creative thinking and partner with leaders to deliver value for our investors, now and in the future. The format of VisionOn is that each of our guests briefly discusses a topic they believe will substantially impact the area of focus over the next five to ten years. Their presentations are followed by a candid Q&A among peers. Our first VisionOn event focused on the Food and Beverage sector was held in November 2017, and the second on Retail was held in March 2018. In October 2018 we held a special edition of VisionOn in New York.

- Provide training on ESG engagement

Key performance indicator

Training for investment teams and portfolio company management

Progress achieved

In June 2017 TowerBrook brought Dr. Mahzarin Banaji of Harvard University to provide unconscious bias training to our team members. In 2018 we arranged mandatory half-day sessions focused on D&I for all team members in each of our New York and London offices. These training sessions were provided by Exponential Talent, a firm that specializes in the development and implementation of diversity and inclusion strategies for innovation and performance. Topics covered at these sessions included an overview of biased language, and specific training on the elimination of bias in interviewing, recruitment, interviewing and staffing allocation.

TowerBrook's London and New York office handbooks contain policies applicable to all team members that support diversity and equal opportunity, and prohibit all forms of discrimination based on age, gender, race, class, religion and national origin TowerBrook provided training to all personnel firmwide on these policies in October 2018, and will provide training going forward at least annually.

- Improved communication of ESG activities within the organisation

Key performance indicator

Training for investment teams and portfolio company management

Progress achieved

TowerBrook organizes periodic portfolio company manager roundtables and/or conference calls, at which ESG features as a topic for discussion (together with anti-bribery, cyber, diversity, etc.). TowerBrook held trainings for its portfolio company managers in the US and Europe in November 2018.

- Improved engagement to encourage change with regards to management of ESG issues

Key performance indicator

Number of companies with an ESG Committee

Progress achieved

TowerBrook has implemented an initiative to ensure that all portfolio companies have instituted the following formal policies: (i) Anti-Bribery, (ii) Code of Conduct, (iii) Corporate Governance and (iv) Health and Safety. TowerBrook also seeks to ensure that each portfolio company has established a dedicated board Committee (for example ESG or CRS), or modified an existing governance committee, to (a) establish a corresponding charter that is bespoke to the language, culture and business of each company, (b) review the company's significant strategies, activities and policies regarding ESG (including labor practices) and community impact and charitable activities, and (c) make recommendations to the Board that focus on maximizing long-term, sustainable value creation. In connection with its recent enhancement of ESG policies, TowerBrook has increased its touch points with the boards of portfolio companies. ESG is an issue we raise explicitly in onboarding each portfolio chairperson and expect each chairperson to attend to, in partnership with TowerBrook, as a matter of providing effective governance. Portfolio company management would then engage with third parties (such as suppliers, developers, and contractors) to verify sound ESG practices.

- Improved ESG incorporation into investment decision making processes

Key performance indicator

Consideration of ESG Markers at each initial discussion of an investment

Progress achieved

TowerBrook seeks to conduct robust reviews of potential ESG risks early in the investment process. TowerBrook has drafted and continuously evolves a list of ESG Markers, including, but not limited to, certain industries or countries that present heightened ESG risk and investor sensitivities. Investment professionals reviewing potential opportunities in such industries or connected to such countries, or which otherwise could reasonably pose material ESG risks, must discuss any such issues with TowerBrook's Transaction Committee at an early stage in the investment consideration process. Materiality of ESG factors is evaluated on a case-by-case basis. TowerBrook revised its ESG Markers in March 2018.

TowerBrook incorporates ESG factors into its investment playbook. TowerBrook published a revised investment playbook in April 2018 which included enhanced ESG screens, including significant specific additions regarding diversity and inclusion considerations into the investment process. TowerBrook also revised its Responsible Ownership Statement in 2018.

TowerBrook also seeks to engage with its preferred ESG consultants at an early stage in the investment consideration process to identify ESG-related risks and opportunities.

Industry and Conference Participation

Progress achieved

TowerBrook's senior team participates from time to time in industry conferences and panels focusing on responsible ownership and ESG issues. Participation by senior team members over the past few years includes the PEI Responsible Investment Forum, ILPA GP Summit, PRI in Person, the PrivCap Private Equity ESG Summit, the Bloomberg Sustainable Business Summit and the ESMT conference on Sustainability Through Digital Innovation. TowerBrook is also an active member of the New York GP ESG working group, which seeks to develop best practice and collaboration amongst private equity GPs. TowerBrook has also attended recent PRI events for asset managers in New York.

Industry and Conference Participation

Progress achieved

TowerBrook's senior team participates from time to time in industry conferences and panels focusing on responsible ownership and ESG issues. Participation by senior team members over the past few years includes the PEI Responsible Investment Forum, ILPA GP Summit, PRI in Person, the PrivCap Private Equity ESG Summit, the Bloomberg Sustainable Business Summit and the ESMT conference on Sustainability Through Digital Innovation. TowerBrook is also an active member of the New York GP ESG working group, which seeks to develop best practice and collaboration amongst private equity GPs. TowerBrook has also attended recent PRI events for asset managers in New York.

The Firm's Management Committee formally considers Responsible Ownership and ESG-related issues on an annual basis.

TowerBrook has formed a Responsible Ownership Committee, composed of senior TowerBrook professionals, including the firm's co-CEOs, to direct the responsible ownership program, including the adoption, implementation and monitoring of policies and procedures to ensure that TowerBrook and its portfolio companies' businesses are conducted in a responsible manner. The Responsible Ownership Committee meets at least quarterly.

Within TowerBrook, the Portfolio Group and Legal Team monitor relevant matters within the portfolio on an ongoing basis as applicable. ESG matters are included in 200 day plans, with any particular issues requiring attention being highlighted and prioritized. The Portfolio Group encourages companies to address relevant ESG matters, such as supply chain risks for apparel companies and environmental and safety for manufacturing companies. ESG is a standard item for consideration at TowerBrook's monthly portfolio committee meetings, at which TowerBrook addresses current important considerations.

TowerBrook deal teams actively monitor ESG at the portfolio company level for our controlled portfolio companies, ensuring that systems and resources are in place to enable ESG risks to be effectively managed and that each portfolio company assigns specific management responsibility for ESG operations. As part of its general ESG oversight, TowerBrook would review existing compliance with sustainability, and ethical business guidelines, as appropriate, and would encourage portfolio company management to introduce new guidelines if we deemed this necessary. TowerBrook seeks to ensure that each controlled portfolio company has established a dedicated board Committee (for example ESG or CRS), or modified an existing governance committee, to (a) establish a corresponding charter that is bespoke to the language, culture and business of each company, (b) review the company's significant strategies, activities and policies regarding ESG (including labor practices) and community impact and charitable activities, and (c) make recommendations to the Board that focus on maximizing long-term, sustainable value creation.

SG 07.4 Additional information. [Optional]

Responsible ownership considerations are integrated into every stage of our investment process and drive the development of policies, action plans and metrics for our portfolio companies.

Overview

TowerBrook has a clear and consistent process that helps us scrutinise prospective investments, manage them responsibly and deliver sustainable results for our investors. Responsible ownership considerations are integrated into every stage of this process, and drive the development of policies, action plans and metrics for our portfolio companies.

Initial Screening

TowerBrook seeks to conduct robust reviews of potential ESG risks early in the investment process. TowerBrook has drafted and continuously evolves a list of ESG Markers, including, but not limited to, certain industries or countries that present heightened ESG risk and investor sensitivities. Investment professionals reviewing potential opportunities in such industries or connected to such countries, or which otherwise could reasonably pose material ESG risks, must discuss any such issues with TowerBrook's Transaction Committee at an early stage in the investment consideration process. TowerBrook also seeks to engage with its preferred ESG consultants at an early stage in the investment consideration process to identify ESG-related risks and opportunities.

Due Diligence

Once an early stage investment proceeds to due diligence, TowerBrook conducts ESG-related diligence targeted to the Company's industry and specific risk profile. TowerBrook has developed a standard ESG diligence request list to confirm a target company's level of compliance with TowerBrook's ESG policies and relevant legislation and regulation. Additionally, TowerBrook has developed a specific detailed ESG diligence request list for certain industries, such as consumer goods and manufacturing. TowerBrook's investment team members may also conduct site visits, as appropriate. TowerBrook's preferred ESG consultants would be retained during the diligence stage to conduct a fulsome ESG diligence review.

TowerBrook's due diligence processes are designed to ensure that material issues, including ESG, are addressed when considering and evaluating investment opportunities. TowerBrook seeks to undertake ESG due diligence on applicable private equity investments, including, but not limited to, those with industrial manufacturing capabilities. Environmental diligence typically comprises environmental Phase I site assessments, but this can be extended to include Phase II site assessment if necessary. TowerBrook may also conduct diligence on anti-corruption, data privacy, supply chain, safety and other governance matters, as appropriate. TowerBrook's due diligence process for structured opportunities investments may also take into account ESG considerations, as appropriate. During diligence, TowerBrook also extensively references key executives and non-executives affiliated with the company, testing among other things for integrity and ethical reputation to help shape our view of the broader company's culture and attitudes.

Transaction Closing

At signing, TowerBrook's legal team would consider whether to include detailed ESG clauses in investment or shareholders' agreements, as practicable and applicable. The legal team and investment teams also work to verify due diligence findings via representations and warranties in the purchase agreement and seek specific indemnification as appropriate.

200-Day Plan

The 200-day plan for each portfolio company includes development and publication of an appropriate ESG policy and development of procedures to implement, monitor and test such policy. Each 200-day plan includes standard ESG items, as well as any specific ESG items identified during diligence as relevant for a particular target company. Individual portfolio company action plans are designed, where appropriate, to address any opportunities for improvement.

Ownership

During ownership, ESG related risks are managed by the boards and management teams of the individual portfolio companies. Since TowerBrook invests in a wide range of sectors, ESG risks vary widely from company to company. In connection with its recent enhancement of Responsible Ownership policies, TowerBrook now seeks to discuss the importance of ESG with each CEO of private equity portfolio companies, together with the Chair, who would have been separately instructed during onboarding with a Welcome Pack that explicitly addresses Responsible Ownership and the Chair's role therein. TowerBrook intends to actively monitor ESG at the portfolio company level, ensuring that systems and resources are in place to enable ESG risks to be effectively managed and that each portfolio company assigns specific management responsibility for ESG operations. TowerBrook's approach to ESG has been to ask each portfolio company's Audit & Risk Management Committee to review regularly such ESG risks as are relevant to that company. This practice is now evolving to establish a dedicated ESG (or similar) committee on each portfolio board. Portfolio company management is encouraged to engage directly with third parties (such as suppliers, developers, and contractors) to verify sound ESG practices. Furthermore, TowerBrook seeks to ensure adequate training on ESG at the portfolio company level, which may include sensitivity/diversity training and supply chain management training.

Exit

Responsible Investment and ownership considerations are also addressed in connection with exit, as appropriate. Any ESG issues would be addressed specifically pre-exit, or fully disclosed to a prospective purchaser, so that prospective buyers cannot use ESG factors to impose discounts due to lack of evidence that issues have been addressed. TowerBrook would also highlight ESG actions as selling points where applicable (for example, a "great ESG story to tell"). Transparency about what remains to be done, as well as about what has been done, is important in building trust and establishing an appropriate valuation.

Investment professionals reviewing potential opportunities which present climate-related issues, or which impact industries which could reasonably present climate-related issues, must discuss any such issues with TowerBrook's Transaction Committee at an early stage in the investment consideration process. Materiality of climate-related issues are evaluated on a case-by-case basis. TowerBrook also seeks to engage with its preferred ESG consultants at an early stage in the investment consideration process to identify climate-related risks and opportunities. Teams also partner with the relevant portfolio companies to resolve any given climate-related issues and escalate to the executive team where needed.

TowerBrook employs a 2-phase approach in diligence: (1) Phase 1 is a "scan" which provides high level ESG input from experts on ESG risks and value creation opportunities in the potential investment and (2) Phase 2 is a deeper dive into the areas highlighted.

Our focus on best practice in responsible ownership led us to study the methodology established by the Sustainable Accounting Standards Board (SASB), an independent body dedicated to enhancing the efficiency of capital markets by fostering the high-quality disclosure of material sustainability information that meets the needs of investors. We concluded that the SASB framework was particularly relevant to TowerBrook because it is thoroughly researched and grounded in materiality and value creation. Drawing on the framework proposed by SASB, we built a set of metrics on which we annually measure ESG and Responsible Ownership across our portfolio. A summary of our methodology and the results of our review are presented in our Responsible Ownership Report 2018 (https://www.towerbrook.com/wp-content/uploads/TowerBrook_Responsible_Ownership-2018.pdf).

TowerBrook considers requests from its investors for ESG-related side letter provisions on an ad hoc basis. Our Fund V and TSO side letters with certain investors included provisions regarding, amongst other things: our Responsible Ownership Policy, a commitment to invest in accordance with our Responsible Ownership Policy, enhanced ESG reporting obligations, our UNPRI signatory status, and our obligation to notify of any ESG related incidents in our portfolio.

Responsible ownership considerations are integrated into every stage of our investment process and drive the development of policies, action plans and metrics for our portfolio companies.

Overview

TowerBrook has a clear and consistent process that helps us scrutinise prospective investments, manage them responsibly and deliver sustainable results for our investors. Responsible ownership considerations are integrated into every stage of this process, and drive the development of policies, action plans and metrics for our portfolio companies.

Initial Screening

TowerBrook seeks to conduct robust reviews of potential ESG risks early in the investment process. TowerBrook has drafted and continuously evolves a list of ESG Markers, including, but not limited to, certain industries or countries that present heightened ESG risk and investor sensitivities. Investment professionals reviewing potential opportunities in such industries or connected to such countries, or which otherwise could reasonably pose material ESG risks, must discuss any such issues with TowerBrook's Transaction Committee at an early stage in the investment consideration process. TowerBrook also seeks to engage with its preferred ESG consultants at an early stage in the investment consideration process to identify ESG-related risks and opportunities.

Due Diligence

Once an early stage investment proceeds to due diligence, TowerBrook conducts ESG-related diligence targeted to the Company's industry and specific risk profile. TowerBrook has developed a standard ESG diligence request list to confirm a target company's level of compliance with TowerBrook's ESG policies and relevant legislation and regulation. Additionally, TowerBrook has developed a specific detailed ESG diligence request list for certain industries, such as consumer goods and manufacturing. TowerBrook's investment team members may also conduct site visits, as appropriate. TowerBrook's preferred ESG consultants would be retained during the diligence stage to conduct a fulsome ESG diligence review.

TowerBrook's due diligence processes are designed to ensure that material issues, including ESG, are addressed when considering and evaluating investment opportunities. TowerBrook seeks to undertake ESG due diligence on applicable private equity investments, including, but not limited to, those with industrial manufacturing capabilities. Environmental diligence typically comprises environmental Phase I site assessments, but this can be extended to include Phase II site assessment if necessary. TowerBrook may also conduct diligence on anti-corruption, data privacy, supply chain, safety and other governance matters, as appropriate. TowerBrook's due diligence process for structured opportunities investments may also take into account ESG considerations, as appropriate. During diligence, TowerBrook also extensively references key executives and non-executives affiliated with the company, testing among other things for integrity and ethical reputation to help shape our view of the broader company's culture and attitudes.

ESG risks and/or ESG-related opportunities are discussed in the investment memoranda presented to the applicable Transaction Committee or Investment Committee. Additionally, all diligence reports by advisors relating to ESG issues are presented to the relevant committee. ESG matters would then be discussed thoroughly, with such discussion including members of TowerBrook's legal team and portfolio group, and also outside consultants if necessary. Consideration of ESG issues would be reflected in the minutes of the Committee meetings, as appropriate. Each final Investment Committee acquisition contains a written section detailing identified ESG risks and ESG opportunities in connection with the proposed opportunity.

TowerBrook seeks to discuss the importance of ESG with each CEO of private equity portfolio companies, together with the Chair, who would have been separately instructed during onboarding with a Welcome Pack that explicitly addresses Responsible Ownership and the Chair's role therein. TowerBrook intends to actively monitor ESG at the portfolio company level, ensuring that systems and resources are in place to enable ESG risks to be effectively managed and that each portfolio company assigns specific management responsibility for ESG operations. TowerBrook's approach to ESG has been to ask each portfolio company's Audit & Risk Management Committee to review regularly such ESG risks as are relevant to that company. This practice is now evolving to establish a dedicated ESG (or similar) committee on each portfolio board. Portfolio company management is encouraged to engage directly with third parties (such as suppliers, developers, and contractors) to verify sound ESG practices. Furthermore, TowerBrook seeks to ensure adequate training on ESG at the portfolio company level, which may include sensitivity/diversity training and supply chain management training. Example A recent example of integrating ESG considerations into the post-investment plan is our portfolio company, AustroCel Hallein. Following TowerBrook's acquisition, a project was approved to construct a bioethanol plant that would enable the company to produce bioethanol by recycling a side product called brown liquor that is generated as part of the mill's core manufacturing process. This investment is expected to significantly increase the earnings coming from green energy production, and to overall improve the financial profile of AustroCel Hallein.

Our focus on best practice in responsible ownership led us to study the methodology established by the Sustainable Accounting Standards Board (SASB), an independent body dedicated to enhancing the efficiency of capital markets by fostering the high-quality disclosure of material sustainability information that meets the needs of investors. We concluded that the SASB framework was particularly relevant to TowerBrook because it is thoroughly researched and grounded in materiality and value creation. Drawing on the framework proposed by SASB, we built a set of metrics on which we annually measure ESG and Responsible Ownership across our portfolio. A summary of our methodology and the results of our review are presented in our Responsible Ownership Report 2018 (https://www.towerbrook.com/wp-content/uploads/TowerBrook_Responsible_Ownership-2018.pdf).

PE 11.2	Describe how your organisation contributes to the portfolio companies' resourcing and management of ESG issues.
TowerBrook publishes our Responsible Ownership Statement on our website, distributes it to all of our controlled portfolio companies and asks for it to be observed. In addition to establishing the policies described in the Responsible Ownership Statement, TowerBrook periodically asks all of its portfolio companies to complete a comprehensive questionnaire designed to identify ESG issues. TowerBrook continues to enhance its monitoring of its portfolio company's ESG risk during 2019.

During ownership, ESG related risks are managed by the boards and management teams of the individual portfolio companies. Since TowerBrook invests in a wide range of sectors, ESG risks vary widely from company to company. TowerBrook seeks to discuss the importance of ESG with each CEO of private equity portfolio companies, together with the Chair, who would have been separately instructed during onboarding with a Welcome Pack that explicitly addresses Responsible Ownership and the Chair's role therein.

TowerBrook actively monitors ESG at the portfolio company level, ensuring that systems and resources are in place to enable ESG risks to be effectively managed and that each portfolio company assigns specific management responsibility for ESG operations. TowerBrook ensures that all controlled portfolio companies have instituted the following formal policies in place: (i) Anti-Bribery, (ii) Code of Conduct, (iii) Corporate Governance and (iv) Health and Safety. TowerBrook also seeks to ensure that each portfolio company has established a dedicated board Committee (for example ESG or CRS), or modified an existing governance committee, to (a) establish a corresponding charter that is bespoke to the language, culture and business of each company, (b) review the company's significant strategies, activities and policies regarding ESG (including labor practices) and community impact and charitable activities, and (c) make recommendations to the Board that focus on maximizing long-term, sustainable value creation. TowerBrook has increased its touch points with the boards of portfolio companies. ESG is an issue we raise explicitly in onboarding each portfolio chair and expect each chair to attend to, in partnership with TowerBrook, as a matter of providing effective governance. Portfolio company management would then engage with third parties (such as suppliers, developers, and contractors) to verify sound ESG practices. Finally, TowerBrook reviews annually the ESG program at each Portfolio Company board level. TowerBrook also provides training to senior management of its portfolio companies periodically that addresses ESG issues, covering relevant employee-related policies, sourcing policies, and environmental policies. TowerBrook also organizes periodic manager roundtables and/or conference calls, at which ESG features as a topic for discussion (together with anti-bribery, cybersecurity, diversity, etc.).

Transparency about what remains to be done, as well as about what has been done, is important in building trust and establishing an appropriate valuation.
Note the response above "We did not include ESG issues in pre-exit information" is because there were no material ESG issues in the one portfolio company exit during the reporting year (Wilton). We would include ESG issues in pre-exit information to the extent applicable.

TowerBrook encourages each portfolio company to commit to specific ESG initiatives that tie to economic value creation. This process is owned by the portfolio companies to ensure that the initiatives are locally owned and maximally relevant to the business model.

Beyond these strategic initiatives, we also examine all the positive ESG-related actions taken during TowerBrook's ownership and try to quantify these in terms of the value added - for example, in respect of higher revenues, lower costs, less waste, enhanced brand equity, better access to talent, amongst others. To the extent possible, TowerBrook would endeavor to place a monetary value on ESG activities (e.g. revenues, costs, brand equity, access to talent), and may use bottom-up accounting methodologies to identify the specific contribution of an ESG initiative of program.

Specific examples of the results of TowerBrook's engagement on ESG issues within the past few years include:

AustroCel Hallein: Following TowerBrook's acquisition, a project was approved to construct a bioethanol plant that would enable the company to produce bioethanol by recycling a side product called brown liquor that is generated as part of the mill's core manufacturing process. This investment is expected to significantly increase the earnings coming from green energy production, and to overall improve the financial profile of AustroCel Hallein.

AIM Aviation: The construction of the new factory for Cabin Interiors in Bournemouth was delayed for 18 months to allow the clearance of rare snakes from the site. The presence of the snakes was uncovered by a survey undertaken by the company, which then declared the situation to the local authorities and cooperated fully with the wildlife consultants. The snakes were eventually removed and the factory is now under construction.

Kaporal: The company undertakes annual inspections of supplier factories to ensure that the requirements of its vendor manual and quality standards are being observed. In the last year, TowerBrook personnel accompanied the company teams to China and India in order to verify that the procedures laid out in the manual are being observed.

Metallo: Following TowerBrook's acquisition, a €35m capex project was approved to construct a new zinc fumer on the company's site in Belgium. The project was approved to further the company's strategy of being the industry's best in class with regard to observance of environmental standards. The zinc fumer effectively recycles the waste of other processes, thus enabling the company to move towards becoming a zero-waste green recycler.

TriMedx: TriMedx partners with healthcare providers to reduce the cost of managing and maintaining medical equipment fleets, unlocking substantial value for its customers who can redeploy savings towards patient care. Currently, the majority of TriMedx customers are not-for-profit hospital systems serving the needs of a variety of communities across the US. Through the TriMedx Foundation, the company also supports healthcare in emerging markets by sending used and donated equipment overseas. Since its founding in 2004 the TriMedx Foundation has provided over 7,400 volunteer hours to support communities in need.

FloWorks (formerly Shale-Inland): In the course of the due diligence TowerBrook identified manageable environmental concerns that led to bespoke environmental indemnities being negotiated, which afforded TowerBrook more robust protection than otherwise would have been available under general indemnification terms. Additionally, TowerBrook identified a steel plant with environmental issues pre-acquisition, and insisted that the plant in question be carved out of the transaction before it would proceed.
