

Funeral Terms and Conditions

1 Estimates and Expenses: Our estimate is an indication of the charges likely to be incurred based on the information and details we know at the date of the estimate. We make every effort to ensure the accuracy of the estimate, the charges are liable to alteration particularly where third parties change their rates or charges however, we will give you the best estimate of such charges in the written estimate. The actual amount of the charges will be detailed and shown in the final account. If you amend your instructions, we may require your written confirmation of the changes. We may need to make an extra charge in accordance with the prices published in our current price list. We will add VAT to our charges, where applicable, and at the rate applicable when we prepare the invoice.

2 Payment Arrangements: The funeral account is due for payment within fourteen days of our account, unless otherwise agreed by us in writing. If you fail to pay us in full on the due date, we may charge you interest at a daily rate of 4% above our bank's Base Rate from time to time in force. In addition to which, we may charge you a £40 charge per invoice for late payment pursuant to either late payment of Commercial Debt or this Firm's Terms and Conditions of Business.

3 Indemnity: You are to indemnify us in full and hold us harmless from all expenses and liabilities we may incur (directly or indirectly including financing costs and including Legal costs on a full indemnity basis) following any breach by you of any of your obligations under these Terms. This means that you are liable to us for losses we incur because you do not comply with these Terms. For example, we may charge you an administration fee where we receive a cheque from you which is subsequently not honoured or if we write to remind you that an account is overdue or if we have to instruct a solicitor take legal action, we will ask the Court to make you pay our legal and Court costs.

4 Data Protection & GDPR Consent: Words shown in italics are defined in the Data Protection Act 1998 ("the Act"). We respect the confidential nature of the information given to us and, where you provide us with personal data ("data") we will ensure that the data will be held securely, in confidence and processed for the purpose of carrying out our services. In order to provide our services, we may need to pass such data to third parties and those third parties, who are performing some of the services for you, may contact you directly. Under the Act you have the right to know what data we hold on you and you can, by applying to us in writing and paying a fee, receive copies of that data.

By agreeing to our terms, you give consent to Unique Funerals Limited to:

5. Cooling-Off Period: The Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 may give you the right to terminate this agreement in the cooling-off period of fourteen days. If you wish the performance of the agreement to which this right applies to commence before the end of the cooling-off period, you must sign the authority in the form which will be handed to you. If you exercise the right to cancel this contract during the cooling-off period, you will be required to pay a reasonable amount for goods and services already supplied.

6 Termination: This agreement may also be terminated before the services are delivered: (1) by us if you fail to honour your obligations under these Terms and (2) by you communicating to us in writing, terminating your instructions. If we or you terminate your instructions you may, depending upon the reasons for termination, be asked to pay a reasonable amount based upon the work carried out up to the time your termination is received.

7 Standards of Service: We strive to provide a high-quality service in all aspects. If you have any questions or concerns about the service, we provide to you, please raise them in the first instance with our designated senior person. All dates and times provided on the estimate cannot be guaranteed until final bookings are made and confirmed. Although we endeavour to provide a prompt and efficient service to you, there may be instances where, because of circumstances beyond our control, we are unable to fulfil our obligations to you on the date or time specified. Where this is the case, we will attempt to contact you in advance, using the details you have provided, and advise you of alternative arrangements.

8 Agreement: Your continuing instructions will amount to your continuing acceptance of these Terms of Business. Your instructions will not create any right enforceable by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties Act 1999) by any person not identified as our client. If any of these terms are unenforceable as drafted; -- it will not affect the enforceability of any other of these Terms; and - if it would be enforceable if amended, it will be treated as so amended. Nothing in these Terms restricts or limits our liability for death or personal injury. This agreement is subject to English Law. If you decide to commence legal action, you may do so, in any appropriate UK Court.
